Press Release – for immediate release

They are back! The World's Greatest Big Band, The Glenn Miller Orchestra, returns to Worthing this August.

Through an arrangement with Glenn Miller Productions in New York, veteran band-leader Ray McVay has put together an orchestra we feel the maestro would be proud of were he here to see it. The Glenn Miller Orchestra in Concert is coming to Worthing's Pavilion Theatre, Sunday 7 August at 5pm!

The exact stage line-up devised by Glenn has been maintained, consisting of the leader, five saxophones, four trumpets, four trombones and three rhythm plus a male and female vocalist. The singers perform both individually and as part of The Moonlight Serenaders vocal group.

Back in the big band era of the 1940's, any dance band worth its salt had a distinctive signature tune. The theme of The Glenn Miller Orchestra was and remains, Moonlight Serenade. Interestingly though, Glenn Miller originally wrote the music of the song as an exercise for a music arranging course. He composed it long before he had organised his orchestra and today Moonlight Serenade is considered a standard in the field of popular music. Its popularity as an instrumental continues undiminished.

Featuring: In the Mood, Moonlight Serenade, American Patrol, Little Brown Jug, Tuxedo Junction and the song that became pop history's first gold disc, Chattanooga Choo Choo!

Audiences of all ages will be thrilled by the sound of this amazing Big Band.

The Glenn Miller Orchestra in Concert will be at the Pavilion Theatre on Sunday 7 August, 5pm. Tickets are available from £13.50. For more information on any of the events visit www.wtm.uk or call the WTM Box Office on 01903 206206.
