Press Release – for immediate release

Crimes on Centre Court is batting its way to Worthing

Multi-award-winning New Old Friends are touring another dose of mirth, murder and mayhem, this time with a side of tennis. Lord Knows the chair of The Whombledun International Invitational Tennis Tournament has died and his son, Hugh, is suspicious. The police won't take the case so Hugh calls in Perry & Penny Pink, private investigators.

What transpires has all the hallmarks of the company's particular brand of theatrical hilarity: a cast of four performers play countless characters with quick-fire changes and quicker wits.

Crimes on Centre Court, based on a story from New Old Friends' award-winning podcast (#2 in iTunes fiction chart), is an ace of a show which you're sure to (fifteen) love. This deucey summertime treat will rally the spirits and leave you wanting a second serve-ing of the volley of gags and visual delights. You won't see it game set and matched anywhere else. New Old Friends have built a national reputation with their wildly inventive set-pieces, twisty plots and commitment to unadulterated entertainment.

Press for previous New Old Friends shows:

"Celebrations of theatricality... worthy of The 39 Steps" - The Times

"Crammed to the gills with knife-sharp visual gags and murderously bad puns" - The Financial Times

"As effervescent as a sip of Champagne" - The i Paper

"A non-stop bonanza of wit" - British Theatre Guide

Crimes on Centre Court will be held at the Connaught Theatre on Thursday 22 September 2022 at 7:30pm. Tickets are available from £10. For more information or to book visit wtam.uk or call the WTM Box Office on 01903 206 206.
