Press Release – for immediate release

Five outstanding musicians, one non-musical stand-up star; combined they're the mighty Horne Section, and they're coming to Worthing this October with their comedic concert experience.

Expect comedy, songs, enthusiastic dancing and a whole load of mucking about in this incredibly entertaining live show. The hugely talented band are joined by Alex Horne - the creator and co-host of the Bafta and Emmy-nominated Taskmaster. The Horne Section will be blowing proverbial socks off at the Pavilion Theatre on Wednesday 20 October 2021, 7:30pm.

This is proper old-school entertainment in the style of variety TV shows, with a full band featuring drums, trumpet, guitar and all the trimmings. In fact, they've had their own TV special at the famous London Palladium so are well suited to a venue like Worthing's beloved Pavilion Theatre. With all these bells and whistles, 'you'd be hard pushed to find a more enjoyable night out' (Chortle).

Rarely do the two worlds of comedy and music unite in such uproariously fun form, and as such this show is a great way to cater to all sorts of different performance palates. As the Guardian put it, this is a 'joyful, high-octane collision of stand-up, musical improvisation and variety...one of the most original and entertaining comedy cabarets you'll see'.

Not only are The Horne Section known for their live shows, which have sold out year-on-year at Edinburgh Fringe, but they have an iTunes-chart-topping podcast and a hit BBC Radio 4 series. They have also made appearances on Save Our Summer; Crouchy's Year Late Euros and The Last Leg, and are regulars on 8 out of 10 Cats Does Countdown's Dictionary Corner. The cherry on the sundae? They're the first band to ever host Never Mind The Buzzcocks, which is a unique and well deserved honour.

The Horne Section is hitting the Pavilion Theatre on Wednesday 20 October 2021, 7:30pm. Tickets are available from £26.50. For more information on this or any of the events, visit www.wtam.uk or call the WTM Box Office on 01903 206 206.
