Country music has seen a great resurgence in popularity in recent years, with the likes of The Shires, Taylor Swift and Lady Antebellum bringing their own contemporary style to the genre. These artists, together with the hit US TV show Nashville, have introduced the music to a huge new, young audience.

Dominic Halpin & The Hurricanes have established themselves as one of the most in-demand acts in the UK. Since bursting onto the scene they have racked up an impressive list of show dates, from Blenheim Palace to a headline show at the Abu Dhabi International Jazz Festival.
