Worthing Theatres and Museum have announced the line-up for their annual SPIN OUT festival which is returning for Summer 2022. SPIN OUT is a season of free outdoor performances taking place every Saturday through the summer in various locations around Worthing! SPIN OUT 2022 opens with an energetic and playful dance piece Jham! (Sat 9 Jul). The following week you can enjoy joyfully raucous The Grimm Sisters (Sat 16 Jul), a fun-filled show that sees the Grimm Sisters return to set the record straight about their story-stealing brothers!

This year's SPIN OUT also includes a FREE Saturday Morning Picture film screening of Madagascar 3 - Escape to Europe (Sat 20 Aug). Watch Alex, Marty, Gloria and Melman embark on a riotous adventure as they join a travelling circus, to get back and evade capture by Animal Control.

This summer's festival also welcomes back Joseph Toonga with dance piece Born to Protest (Sat 27 August), an emotional hip-hop dance piece that challenges racial stigma, dismantles presumptions about the black male and female figures, and highlights the constant battle to prove oneself.

In September you can see Brainfools' Lucky Pigeon (Sat 3 Sep), a comedic and acrobatic show about a man who is turned into a pigeon. Stopgap are set to close the season the following weekend with Frock (Sat 10 Sep), a quirky dance piece that explodes into a 'punkish' celebration of individuality and difference.
