Press Release – for immediate release

These Hills Are Ours are heading to Worthing's Pavilion Atrium

Do you ever want to run away from it all?

Dan and Boff did exactly that: they ran a series of routes from the centre of the city in which they found themselves, to the top of the peak overlooking that city. But what are we really running from?

In story and in song, These Hills Are Ours is the story of what they found out on those journeys. It's about escaping it all by running to wild places. Escaping the city, escaping your past, escaping the restrictions of upbringing or class or politics. It's a celebration of wild places and our freedom to roam them.

Daniel Bye's award-winning, internationally touring theatre is always engaging, thought-provoking and entertaining. Boff Whalley, best-known as a founder member of Chumbawamba, writes heartfelt, catchy folk songs. This, their first theatre piece together, sees them moving into their most personal material yet. It's a not-to-be-missed collaboration between two of Britain's most celebrated artists in their own fields.

Co-commissioned by Beaford Arts, Eden Project, Lancaster Arts, Leeds Playhouse and Shoreditch Town Hall with support from artsdepot.

These Hills Are Ours will be held at the Pavilion Atrium on Monday 26 September 2022 at 7:30pm. Tickets are available from £13.50. For more information or to book visit wtm.uk or call the WTM Box Office on 01903 206 206.
