Press Release – for immediate release

Spymonkey's first family-friendly show HAIRY is coming to Worthing

Laugh-out-loud comedy theatre for audiences aged 6-12 and their families.

Comedy-meets-rock-band-meets-punk-clown-mayhem, HAIRY is a playful and frankly laughable exploration of that most versatile and significant feature of human anatomy.

Spymonkey's first show created especially for young people, HAIRY will have few words and great generous dollops of bold visual comedy. The show will be directed by Toby Park and Aitor Basauri, and will be a Polka Theatre Wimbledon and Worthing Theatres and Museum co-production.

Looking around at work for young people they saw wealth of stage versions of well-known illustrated children's books, or the regularly mined canon of classic children's literature. So they thought this would be a brilliant opportunity to use their experience to make a piece of laugh-out-loud, extraordinary and inventive theatre for young people that stands up on its own terms.

Spymonkey made their name being extremely un-sensible, silly and anarchic work and they relish the chance to bring that sensibility to work for younger audiences. Spymonkey unapologetically set out to make audiences laugh. But 'funny' also covers the strange, the odd, the misfitting, eccentric and unique, all of which they cherish in the sort of theatre that we like to make.

Hairy will be held at the Pavilion Theatre from Thursday 24 August to Monday 28 August 2023. Tickets are available from £13.50. For more information or to book visit wtam.uk or call the WTM Box Office on 01903 206 206.
